

Adapted Physical Education (APE) Distance Learning Plan

Pomona Unified and the department of Educational Services are fully committed to the support and success of teachers and students as we experience the move into this 21st Century learning model together. As we explore what the schedule and experience will be for teachers and students, we are mindful of the fact that we have varying technological skill levels and student needs. We are here to walk you through whatever you need, every step of the way.

Below are the schedules for the implementation of PUSD’s Special Education Secondary Distance Learning Model. We recommend phasing in different types of experiences to accommodate for varying levels of technological expertise. The expectation is for students to be formally engaged in Distance Learning starting April 6. Our research has shown that the best kind of Distance Learning activities should: enhance learning, align to grade level standards, prepare students to return to school and help students improve their grades.

Students will not be penalized for work submitted. This endeavor is for students to improve their current grade and continue with their courses, as well as, work on their IEP goals by submitting and completing learning activities.

Guidance for Daily Distance Learning
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Week of April 6th - Teachers should focus on connecting with students and set the expectations for their engagement. Teachers can use phone calls to connect to students and parents to share their schedules. Teachers should start using Zoom in a basic manner to become familiar with the system. It can be used to do a brief check-in with students to practice how to engage on the system. ● Week of April 13th - Begin using the district or teacher developed lessons. These lessons use district adopted core materials and can be adjusted for various student needs. Teachers should start experimenting more with Zoom and find ways to engage students in lessons online, including asking and answering questions and discussions. ● Week of April 20th - Small group instruction can begin his week to work with students that need additional support. ● All teachers will provide daily engagement in the learning process by using multiple distant learning approaches, preferably online platforms such as Zoom Conference, Google Classroom, Edgenuity, or Achieve 3000. ● Recommended to include an Original Content Lesson when using Zoom and Pear Deck 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Google Classroom Assignments may include a built in discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ This could also be a link to another system such as Big Ideas, Desmos, Edulastic ● Assignments per class: the time needed to complete an assignment is limited to a minimum of 1-1.5 hours per day during the days that the class is in session. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Additional time can be added for activities (not to exceed a total of 4 hours per class per week) ● A suggested schedule is below, however, for the students that cannot be there at that time, meetings will be recorded and able to be accessed when the student is available ● All teachers will have an opportunity for weekly collaborative time to develop online learning remotely ● All teachers will have access to training remotely to support their delivery of online learning activities (i.e. training videos, access to TTS) ● Once a week, all teachers will provide “office hours” for students to ask questions and receive feedback on academic progress ● Once a week, all teachers should review student IEP’s and update progress as necessary.

Guidance for Parent/Guardian Feedback

- If a parent or guardian has a question for a staff member, please email the individual and the staff member will respond to your question within 24 hours, Monday through Friday.
- Provide weekly updates to parents and guardians via school website and other social media outlets.
- Create a venue for parents to provide feedback on how distant learning and information sharing is working for them.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

- Do I teach new content?
 - You can teach new content, as students will possibly need it to move to the next course.
- If I want to meet with my students more than 1 time per week, is it permissible?
 - At this time, we prefer most teachers to meet with students once a week, and we encourage student feedback via Google Classroom or other collaborative online platforms.
- I'm not comfortable with using the suggested content online or the online tools, what resources are available to support me?
 - Contact a teacher specialist or (if you are a special education teacher) your Program Specialist for content or online tools support: See contact information above.
 - For other technical or equipment support, please submit a Help Desk ticket: <https://help.pusd.org/>
- I have a student who has not responded to emails or phone calls, what do I do?
 - Use some form of capturing communication to students. If you are a special education teacher, make sure to document your attempts including the date/time and reason for each communication by either recording contacts on the Distance Learning Service chart/log, a log of your choice, or by using a conference verification form (SEIS document library).
- I have a student who needs some additional social emotional support, what do I do?
 - Provide students the daily schedule for Counseling Support and refer students to Patti Azevedo for urgent needs. If you are a special education teacher and a student currently receives counseling/guidance or ERICS services, please contact their service provider.
- As a special education teacher, do I continue to update progress on goals during distance learning?
 - Yes, special education teachers will continue to document student progress on goals to the extent feasible during distance learning
